Sixth Grade Mathematics - 2022/2023

Dear Parents,

I will be using a grading system that will focus on skills and standards mastery. It is a 4 point rubric based on the standards that I will be teaching in each quarter. The grading adjustments are below and the rubrics for the standards for each quarter are on my web site. Please monitor your child's efforts and progress through the ATLAS on the Internet. If you have questions or concerns, feel free to contact Baird (451-4310) or Email me at brent.wong@fresnounified.org. We look forward to having a great year.....

Curriculum: Go Math Grade 6 and related sources

Grading Scale (4 point Rubric):

\begin{array}{ll}
4-\text { Exceeds standards } & \text { A }=100 \%-87.5 \% \\
3-\text { Meets standards } & B=87.49 \%-62.5 \% \\
2 \text { - Approaching standards } & C=62.49 \%-37.5 \% \\
1 \text { - Not yet approaching standards } & D=37.49 \%-12.5 \% \\
0 \text { - No attempt at standards } & F=12.49 \% \text { and below }
\end{array}

Grades: Please check grades and discuss with your child first. Print a report from ATLAS since grades are updated weekly. What you see on the internet is a working grade and updated daily in most cases.
http://www.fresnounified.org/ is in your child's my site.
Homework: iReady in an online adaptive program that will assign lessons for your child at his/her current math level and students will be given a homework grade based how many lessons they pass every four weeks. They can access the program at home, morning or lunch time in library. They may be given time in class as well.

| 4 or more lessons | -4 points if 2 or more lessons were failed, than you must do 5 lessons for a " 4 " |
| :--- | :--- |
| 3 lessons | -3 points |
| 2 lessons | -2 points |
| 1 lesson | -1 point |
| 0 lessons | -0 points |

Planners are used daily to record homework, activities and class work.
