Perimeter and Area Definitions

Perimeter: is the total distance around the outside of a 2D shape, which you find it by adding together all the lengths of the sides of a shape

Area: is the number a squares it takes to cover an object