

Properties

_____ plus _____ is equal to zero is called the _____ property.

Properties

_____ multiplied by _____ is equal to one is called the _____ property.

Properties

$5(x + 7)$ is equal to _____ + _____ is called the _____ property, is where you multiply the term on the outside of the parenthesis by each term inside the parenthesis.

Properties

$13x + 4y$ is equal to _____ + _____ is called the _____ property, is where you switch the order of the terms.

Properties

$(8 \cdot 5) \cdot 2$ is equal to _____ \cdot (_____ \cdot _____) is called the _____ property, is where you move the parenthesis around two different terms, but doesn't change the result.